Knights of Columbus News July 2009

Blood Drive, June 7 – Thanks to all those who attended the blood drive and donated their time as well as the “Gift of Life”.

2009-2010 Council Officers – Congratulations to the following new officers who will lead the council during the next fraternal year:

Grand Knight – Paul Aust	Deputy Grand Knight – Rich Parcels
Chancellor – Jim Perkins	Financial Secretary – Chuck Klug
Recorder – Harry Nelson	Warden – Sal Bovona
Treasurer – Arnie Willegalle	Lecturer – Elias Haddadin
1yr Trustee – Allen Katen	2yr Trustee – Tom Mackel
3yr Trustee – Chuck Neuman	Advocate – Gene Brannon
Inside Guard – John Renoe	Outside Guard – Robert Richards

Council Officer Installation – Officers for the 2009-2010 fraternal year were installed after the 5:00pm Mass Saturday, June 27.

Knights and their families assisted in many aspects of the Mass and wives were included during the installation ceremony.

25th Council Anniversary – Council 8731 celebrated 25 years as a council June 27th with a dinner. Supreme Knight Carl Anderson sent a congratulatory letter to the council and their families along with a Silver Anniversary certificate signed by him.

The dinner provided the opportunity for the council to make donations to various organizations from funds raised through the golf tournament and the Tootsie Roll Drive. On hand to receive these donations were: Tanner Hospice, Carroll County Special Olympics, St. Vincent de Paul, Carroll County ARC, Pregnancy Resource Center and Carroll County Women’s Shelter.

Bears for Bears Project – A big “Thank You” goes to those members and parishioners who donated stuffed teddy bears for donation to the Carroll County Sheriff Department.

New Meeting Day – Based on the needs of the members and their families the council approved moving the monthly business meeting from the First Monday of the month to the Second Monday. Meeting times remain the same with dinner at 6:15pm and the meeting starting at 7:00pm.
